LPPD makes arrest in overnight assault case

Cassius Lorenzo Collins
09/26/1996

Just after 2:00 am Wednesday, July 18, 2018, the La Porte Police Department received a report of a home invasion in the 10800 block of dogwood. The adult female victim told investigators she heard her dog barking and went to investigate. She was then attacked by the suspect a male wearing a hoodie. The victim was stabbed multiple times sustaining severe non-life-threatening injuries.

The La Porte Police Department's Criminal Investigations Division immediately went to work exhausting all available leads. The investigation led detectives to the suspect, 21-year-old Cassius Lorenzo Collins of La Porte Texas. Detectives learned this was not a random act of violence; Collins has family ties with the victim.

Collins was taken into custody without incident and transported to the La Porte Police Department. Detectives contacted the Harris County District Attorney's Office, who accepted the charge of Aggravated Assault with a Deadly Weapon. Collins is being held by LPPD awaiting transfer to the Harris County Jail.
