LPPD promotes Boznango and Roznovak to Sergeant

(Left) Newly promoted LPPD Sergeant Mark Roznovak with Interim Chief Ron Parker
(Right) Newly Promoted Sergeant Brion Boznango with Interim Chief Ron Parker

With the retirement of one supervisor and the addition of a La Porte Independent School Resource Supervisor, La Porte's Mark Roznovak and Brion Boznango, have been named as fitting successors among the agency's supervisory ranks.

Brion Boznango is an 11 year veteran of the La Porte Police Department. He joined the La Porte Police family in August of 2007. Boznango has worked as a Crime scene Officer, Field Training Officer, Crime Analyst, Detective, and now Patrol Sergeant. While assigned to the Criminal Investigations Division he worked as the Sex Crimes, Crimes against Children, and Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) Cybertip Investigator for the several years. Additionally, he also organized and developed the La Porte Police Department Drone program in 2017. Brion is passionate about his community and serving others and looks forward to the new opportunities this promotion will provide. Outside of work, Brion enjoys spending every second of his time with his wife and their five children.

Mark Roznovak graduated Central Texas College Police Academy, Killeen, Texas in January 2000. He began his law enforcement career with the Hamilton County Sheriff's Dept. later transferring to Harris County Constable Office (HCCO) Pct. 5, where he worked from 2000-2001. Mark ultimately transferred to HCCO Pct. 8, where he worked until March 2011 before becoming an officer with the City of La Porte. Mark worked as a patrolman on evening shift before entering into the position of Training & Recruiting Coordinator until his recent promotion. Mark is excited to begin his new journey as an evening shift patrol Sergeant. On his time off, Mark enjoys spending time in the outdoors with his wife and two children.
