LPPD Adoption Center & Animal Shelter reunites feline family

The City of La Porte Adoption Center & Animal Shelter reunites a mother and five newborn kittens.

The kittens were found in a car, awaiting repairs, at a private business. Once found, the kittens were brought to the City of La Porte Adoption Center & Animal Shelter where the staff and volunteers immediately began caring for the kittens. While separated the five kittens were fostered by, Debbie and Brook Michalcik, who bottle-fed them every two hours. Knowing the kittens needed their mother, Shelter staff and volunteers devised a plan to bring them back together. Utilizing a small animal cage designed to capture animals without injury the mother, whom they named “Cookie,” was retrieved and brought to the shelter in just three days.

Once weaned, Cookie and the kittens will be available for adoption. This story is only one example of the tireless efforts our volunteers and staff give the animals entrusted into their care.
